September 7, 2018

Summary

Summary of no more than 100 words

KEYWORDS: up to 5 keywords or short phrases relevant to the work

1. Introduction to guidelines

The purpose of providing this template is to standardise the format of the abstracts submitted to GISRUK 2019. These notes are based on author guidelines previously produced for the GISRUK conference series which in turn were based on other guidelines.

The pages should have margins of 2.5 cm all round. The base font should be Times New Roman 11pt, or closest equivalent and text should be single spaced. Each section of the paper should be numbered. Section headings should be left-justified and given in bold type. The title should be 16pt and the authors 14pt. The first line of each paragraph in each section should NOT be indented.

1.1. Sub-sections

Sub-sections should also be numbered as shown here. The sub-section heading should be left-justified and given in bold type (11pt).

2. Figures, Tables and Equations,

Tables should be as below (or as close as possible) and should be referenced as Table 1 in the text.

Table 1 GISRUK Conferences

Year	City
2015	University of Leeds
2016	University of Greenwich
2017	University of Manchester
2018	University of Leicester
2019	University of Newcastle

Equations should be centred on the page and numbered consecutively in the right-hand margin, as below. They should be referred to in the text as Equation 1.

$$E=mc^2 \tag{1}$$

* author.a@university.edu

† author.b@university.edu

‡ author.c@university.edu

Figures should be presented as part of the paper and should be referred to as Figure 1 in the text.

3. References and Citations

A list of references cited should be provided at the end of the paper using the Harvard format as shown below. Citations of these within the text should be given as follows: papers such as an interesting one by Harvey and Tulloch (2006) and also interesting books (Day, 1995).

4. File format and length

Abstracts should be submitted in unrestricted pdf format. Authors are requested to keep to the word limit of 1500 words. The word limit includes the main body of the abstract and everything within (including captions etc.,) and the references. Not included in the word count is the title, author list, date, summary, keywords and author biographies

5. Acknowledgements

Acknowledgement should be made of any funding bodies who have supported the work reported in the paper, of those who have given permission for their work to be reproduced or of individuals whose particular assistance is due recognition. Acknowledge data providers here where appropriate.
